

70 Year History of Northern Region / Division 5A / Division 6A Basketball Tournaments (1945 - 2014) and 100 Year History of Virginia State Basketball Tournament (1915 - 2014)

Northern Region / Division 5A / Division 6A Tournaments

Northern Region / 5A / 6A Championship Leaders Since 1945 (minimum of three titles; excludes 1966 and 1967 when the district champions represented Northern Virginia in the State Tournament)

George Washington	11 (16%; 6 during a 7 year period from 1951-57)
T.C. Williams	10 (15%; 5 during a 9 year period from 1975-83; 3 straight from 2007-2009 and 4 out of 5 years from 2007-2011)
Wakefield	8 (12%; 1990, 2005, 2014)
South Lakes	6 (9%; 3 straight from 1992-94)
Hayfield	5 (7%; 3 during a 5 year period from 2000-2004)
Mt. Vernon	3 (4%)
Robert E. Lee - Springfield	3 (4%)
West Springfield	3 (4%; 3 straight from 1972-74)
Washington and Lee	3 (4%)
Robinson	3 (4%)

81% of the Northern Region / 5A / 6A championships since 1945 have been won by 10 schools.....59% have been won by 5 schools. While George Washington was dominant in the early years, T.C. Williams is the “modern-day” leader in Northern Region titles.

The Generals

In 68 years of Northern Region / 5A / 6A championship games, 15 coaches have won 68% of the titles:

6	Don McCool (3 at West Springfield, 3 at Mt. Vernon)
6	Wendell Byrd (South Lakes; retired 2007; 441 – 153 at South Lakes, .740 winning percentage)
5	Mike Hynson (T.C. Williams)
5	Charlie Thompson (2 at Robert E. Lee - Springfield, 1 at Robinson, 2 at Hayfield)
3	Steve Osisek (George Washington)

3 private schools (Benedictine, Oak Hill Academy and Flint Hill) and 3 military academies (Fork Union, Hargrave and Staunton) account for 43% of the NBA players from Virginia high schools.

15% of the NBA players from Virginia high schools have come from 7 public high schools (2 players each – Maggie Walker, Huguenot, Petersburg, Booker T. Washington, Halifax County, Washington and Lee, and South Lakes).

58% of the Virginia high school graduates playing in the NBA came from 7 public high schools, 3 private high schools, and 3 military academies. It seems impossible that T.C. Williams in Alexandria, with 10 Northern Region championships and 13 All-Met players, has not had a graduate play in the NBA.

Note: bolded names for VA, MD and DC still playing in the NBA as of 2014

Born on the Bayou....

In the “4,000 Point Club” of 16 players, 10 are from the state of Louisiana (63%)..... were they using Cajun’ or Mardi Gras math? No one has joined the “4,000 Point Club” in over a decade, since 2002.

THE ELITE EIGHT: WHAT A RUN.....

Only eight schools in VHSL history have won 3-consecutive state championships:

Newport News	AAA	1956-58
Maury	AAA	1925-27
Salem	AAA	1916-18
Brunswick	AA	2011-13
Martinsville	AA	1980-82

Historical 2013-14 DC-Metro-Virginia Hoops Highlights

- 1) Potomac (VA) finishes 22-0 before the post-season, the only DC-area to have an undefeated regular season; they lose to Wakefield in the 5A North Region Championship, but later win the 5A state championship, finishing 28-1.
- 2) Six-foot two Senior Caleb Tanner of the Floyd County Buffaloes (Floyd, VA) breaks the Virginia High School League career scoring record, surpassing Stacy Ervin of Twin Springs and his 17-year record total of 2,687. In a sign of class, Ervin attends the record-breaking game to extend his congratulations. Tanner averaged over 28 points per game in his 4-year career. - 3) With a wealth of talent over the years (10 All-Met players including Tommy Amaker, Pete Holbert and Greg Williams, Coached by Red Jenkins), the Northern Region title always eluded the WT Woodson Cavaliers. This year the Cavaliers got hot late in the season, and won their second consecutive Region championship under Coach Doug Craig with Region Tournament and Northern Region MVP Eric Bowles.
- 4) Wakefield wins its 8th Region championship, gaining ground on the "modern day" Northern Region title holder T.C. Williams (10 titles). In winning the 5A North Region, Wakefield beats 26-0 Potomac.
- 5) Lake Braddock, 6A North Regional Runner-up, goes to the state tournament for the first time in school history, under Coach Brian Metress, who also took Hayfield there four times, including state runner-up in 2000.

- 6) Altavista wins its second consecutive A / 1A state championship.
- 7) IC Norcom wins its 3rd state title in 5 years.
- 8) Dan River wins the 2A state title, going 25-0.

From Then to Now...

The VHSL (Virginia High School League) began holding state championships for boy's basketball in 1915, when Charlottesville High School defeated Lynchburg High School, 35-25. 9,482 boys at 312 member schools participated in boy's basketball during the 2011-12 season.

Thanks as well for info from Penn Greene of the organization DC Basketball (www.dcbasketball.com). Check out this website for great historical info on DC High School basketball. An earlier version of my report has been included on that website under "Links". Can't get to a game during the year (no matter what the sport)? See if it's available for purchase, Live on www.gamedaymagazine.com, a great option for those away games that you have to see, but just can't make. You can purchase on a game-by-game basis, or buy a season pass (I have no affiliation with GameDay!). State championship games in March are on-line for a modest fee at www.vhsl.org under VHSLNetwork. IN MEMORIAM AND DEDICATION

In Memoriam to all of the hoopsters who left us far too soon, and in particular a few:

Mike Cloyd (1956-1983)

Robert E. Lee High School, Springfield, VA, 1975 graduate

A personal friend with a gentle spirit, a love of teaching at Hayfield and coaching the Freshman Basketball team, and a great sense of humor. I am often reminded of the all-too-brief friendship and laughs that we shared. A key contributor during the start of a great time period for Lancer basketball, Mike passed away suddenly at the age of 27 while on the court playing the game he loved, at the school he loved, in the arms of caring friends. Adored by his players and students, and a friend to all, his immense loss is still felt today by all that knew him.

Dixon Davidson (-1975)

Robert E. Lee High School, Springfield, VA

A key contributor during the start of a great time period for Lancer basketball, he was tragically killed in a winter car crash while still in high school.

Marion Foreman (-2011)

Hayfield Secondary School, Alexandria, VA, 1975 graduate

A personal friend who was liked by all, Marion played guard at Hayfield and also played in the defensive backfield on the football team. With an easy laugh and a calm demeanor, Marion was always popular and was personable to all.

Ronnell Felton (passed away in 1997 of leukemia)

Hayfield Secondary School, Alexandria, VA, 1994 graduate

An incredible talent, any shot within 10-feet of the basket was automatic for this superstar Hawk, who was a huge factor in putting Hayfield on the map in Northern Virginia basketball history. His legacy was carried on through his younger brother Cornell, a great player in his own right whose successes at Hayfield were many. Ronnells' highlights include:

Member of Hayfield Hall of Fame

#33 jersey retired in 1997

Played at Niagara University

Was Hayfield's leading scorer upon graduating (1,601 points achieved in three seasons; record later broken by his younger brother Cornell, a 1998 graduate who ended his career with 1,612 points)

Two-time All-District selection

Two-time All-Region selection

1-time All-State selection

Junior year (1993) averaged a staggering 39.5 points per game in the Northern Region Tournament and was MVP of the District and Northern Region Tournaments

Senior year (1994) was Northern Region Player of the Year

Alec McCulloch (passed away suddenly in 2008)

Robert E. Lee High School, Springfield, VA, 1977 graduate

A huge presence in the post and a key contributor during a great time period for Lancer basketball (AAA State runner-up in 1976). A big, intimidating presence, he also had a soft shot, and threw a mean fastball as a pitcher.

Mike Murray

Hayfield Secondary School, 1975 graduate

A three-year varsity player, Mike was All-District in 1974 and 1975, a pure shooter and scorer, who I believe played at VCU. The Senior-trio of Murray, (Steve) Murphy and (John) Melville was inspiring for this freshman to watch, as they got hot late in the 1975 season.

Sammy Zepka (1961-2003)

Mt. Vernon High School, Mt. Vernon, VA, 1979 graduate

Played on the Mt. Vernon team of 1979 that won the AAA State Championship and also played quarterback for the football team.

In Recognition of my last high school coach, Don McCool, who in my senior year (1977-78) guided Hayfield to a 16-8 record and the school's first District Championship. His dedication, intensity, organizational skills, humor, and love and knowledge of basketball were always appreciated, admired and respected. Many of his assistants have gone on to their own successes in the Northern Region, including Brian Metress (Hayfield / Lake Braddock) and Charlie Thompson (Robert E. Lee – Springfield / Robinson / Oakton / Hayfield). His 29-year summary as a head coach in Virginia shows why he can be considered one of the best coaches in Northern Region and VHSL history:

- 431 – 129 career record (average of 15 wins per year)
- 77% winning percentage
- 10 District titles
- 7 Region titles (3-consecutive with West Springfield, 1972-74)
- 2 Virginia State titles (Prince George 1961; Mt. Vernon 1979)
- West Springfield lost in the state tournament twice to Moses Malone and Petersburg High School, including the 1974 AAA state championship game (50-48); West Springfield had 2-time All-Met Dave Koesters at guard, who went on to play at UVA and was a member of the only UVA team to win the ACC Tournament Championship until 2014.

In Dedication to arguably the best Northern Region basketball team in history and possibly the best Virginia High School basketball team in history, the 1976-77 T.C. Williams Titans from Alexandria, who went 28-0....Remember the Titans!
